

The Devils Daily

Week in Review

Special points of interest:

- Students of the Week announced!
- Saying goodbye to the amazing, Gene Wilder
- Cross Country progress
- Yearbooks on sale!

Greetings, from your Devils Daily staff
We hope you all have had a productive, exciting, and wonderful week here at Great Falls High School. This week's issue of The Devils Daily is full of wonderful articles that summarize the week very nicely.

Read up on our Students of the Week, say goodbye to the great Gene Wilder, and play along with our Red Devil regiment!
We would like to make a quick note—due to complications, your What's Going On? Section will be published later this weekend.

We hope that you continue to be an engaged and informed reader by checking out all we have to offer.
Till next week, always remember to get on the DEVIL LEVEL!

Reminders

- Senior Picture Make-Ups are September 15th.
- Red Devil Football Team is playing Blackville-Hilda away at 7:30 today!
- Yearbooks are now on sale! Take $5 off your price if you buy one by Sept. 23rd!
- You can also get another $5 off coupon if you go and like our Great Falls Yearbook on Instagram!
- Softball practice starts Thur. Sept. 8th from 4:00-5:30 at City Field!
- There will also be a Pitching Mini-Camp will be taking place this Monday from 9:00-10:00 AM for Softball!

INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

What's Going On? Power Outage Hurricane Hermine	2
Sports: Color Guard Cross Country Star	3
Profiles: Students of the Week What it means to be RED HOT	4
Entertainment: Goodbye, Gene Wilder Netflix Binge of the Week	5

Quote of the Week

"The difference between ordinary and extraordinary is that little extra."

-Jimmy Johnson

Joke of the Week

Why did Waldo go to therapy?

H: To find himself.

SPORTS

Adventure of a lifetime

Written by: Camryn Patterson-Editing and Photos by: Camryn Patterson– Great Falls high school– September 2, 2016

Joe Miller, the Great Falls band director, has been hard at work for the 2016 school year. Miller has been working on "Adventure of a lifetime," the new marching band and color guard performance.

According to Mr. Miller, Great Falls high school only had a stand band when he came two years ago and not a marching band. They also had 13 students and this year the band is up to 40 students and counting.

Every band director has concerns and one of Miller's is, "I truly hope everybody that comes to band is doing it for more than just doing a trophy. That we are doing this to show school support, to work together and show that we belong to a group. I just don't want this season to end and students feel like they didn't accomplish anything because they didn't win a trophy."

Miller continued by stating, "I would like to see a higher commitment level. They didn't have that when I came here so people just came and went. We didn't get the practice we needed and I want to change that."

Miller's last point was that the band will grow, not just as a team on the field

Photo by: Camryn Patterson – The instruments are waiting to get out of their cases

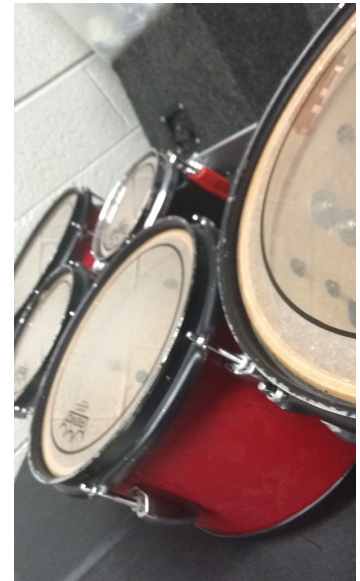

Photo by: Camryn Patterson – the drums are ready to be beaten and for the rhythm to bounce off into the stadium.

but as individuals as well.

Let's give the Red Devil marching band a round of applause and good luck for all the competitions to

Cross country star

Written by: Camryn Patterson-Editing and Photos by: Camryn Patterson– Great Falls high school– September 2, 2016

On August 30th, Kayla Coleman and her fellow cross country members headed to Lancaster high school for their first meet.

Coleman placed 3rd out of 70 other competitors.

At the meet they had to run three miles under 30 minutes. Coleman said, "I feel great about my-self and making this accomplishment."

Coleman also mentioned, "It was hot outside while we were running but, afterwards we went out to eat at chick fil a so, it was all better."

Great job to the entire cross country team and Kayla! Go red devils!

Photo by: Camryn Patterson– Coleman hard at work in her fourth block class.

These students are Red Hot!!!!!!

Written by: Hunter Litzenberg – Great Falls high school– September 1, 2016

To be student of the week you have to be RED HOT. Being red hot means that you are being respectful to your teacher and fellow classmates, being en-gaged in class and participating, dedicated to you work and school career, being honorable which means being honest with everything you say, being organized, and being thoughtful.

Kacie Broome says "Being student of the week makes me feel like a superhero." Mrs. Wendolyn Branham, English teacher at Great Falls, nominated her and said, "Kacie is organized, engaged, and also attentive to others." Kacie's favorite food is chicken, her favorite color is blue, and her favorite car company is a Nissan. Kacie plays Softball outside of school and JROTC in school while she maintains good grades. She is a RED HOT DEVIL

Logan Grant says, "Being student of the week makes him feel good." Mr.

Volume 2, Issue 2

Worthy nominated him saying, "Mr. Grant does grade "A" work and is respectful to both teacher and fellow students. Logan exhibits maturity beyond his age and remains actively engaged throughout the class period." He will be involved in JROTC next semester. He likes steak, the color blue, and his favorite car is a 69' Camaro. Way to be RED HOT, Logan!

Are you RED HOT??

Have been or being a student at Great Falls high school means that you have gone to a small school, but with going to a smaller school means that everyone knows everyone.

This also comes with having lots of memories to share with your children and family.

Being a red devil also mean that you should be RED HOT.

When reflecting on what it means to be Red Hot, Zachary Bigham, senior at Great Falls, said, "I respect all of my teachers, I am always doing my work and interested in the topic, and I always try to get things done then and there. Teachers trust me with getting my work done. I always keep my things and school work organized and I help others if they need help."

So are you Red Hot?

Entertainment of the Week

By: Cierra McIlwain

Wilder in his prime. Photo provided by: Google

The Original Willy Wonka: Gene Wilder dies

Gene Wilder, star of famous movies such as Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory and Young Frankenstein, passed away August 28. Wilder was born as Jerome Silberman on June 11th, 1933. His first role was in 1967's Bonnie and Clyde and he went on to do many other productions. Wilder became a novelist in his later life, writing a memoir and many novels.

Wilder got inspiration to act when his mother had rheumatic heart disease and the doctor told him "Don't argue with your mother, you might kill her. Make her laugh instead." He made his stage debut as Balthasar in William Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. Silberman said he "couldn't see the marquee saying 'Jerome Silberman as Macbeth'" so he changed his name to Gene Wilder. He got Gene from a Thomas Wolfe novel and Wilder from Thornton Wilder, a playwright.

In a 1963 production of Mother Courage and her Children, he met Anne Bancroft, who introduced him to her boyfriend Mel Brooks. Wilder and Brooks became friends and he casted him in his screenplay The Producers. The film flopped, but won Wilder an Academy Award for best supporting actor. This also opened the door for his eminent role in Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory, where he plays the eccentric candy maker. His role as the enigmatic Wonka won him a Golden Globe and opened the door for a full and lifelong career.

Wilder also had an interesting personal life. According to Biography.com, Wilder was married four times. He distanced himself from the public spotlight when his last wife and greatest love, Karen Webber died. Wilder himself died from Alzheimer's complications on August 28th, 2016. He was 83.

Gene Wilder in Young Frankenstein. Photo provided by: Next Productions

- Sources:
- Deaths, By Location-Notable. "Gene Wilder, the Real Willy Wonka." Legacy.com. N.p, n.d. Web. 02 Sept. 2016.
- "Gene Wilder Biography." Bio.com. A&E Networks Television,

NETFLIX Binge of the week

If you like gut-wrenching suspense and mysteries, the Netflix series Stranger Things is for you! The series revolves around the disappearance of a young boy and his friends and family's search for him. The show has received overwhelmingly positive reviews, and sources say Netflix has even renewed it for a second season. The New Yorker referred to it as "a cool summer treat. It's spooky but not scary, escapist but not empty. It's a genre throwback to simpler times, with heroes, villains, and monsters. Yet it's also haunting, and has a rare respect for both adult grief and childhood suffering. It's an original."

After watching this show, I would describe it as an entrancing work of art and give it 5/5 stars.

I couldn't take my eyes away from the screen. Check out this chill inducing show whenever you have a chance!!!

The cast on the show. Photo by: The Verge

The Devils Daily

Great Falls High School
411 Sunset Ave.
Great Falls, SC 29055

Supervisor: Ms. Chelsea Bergmann
Ext.: 838
Email: cbergmann@chester.k12.sc.us

Hello, from your Devils Daily Staff! We welcome you to the 2016-2017 school year and hope you are ready to get on the devil level. We are a school organization and represent Great Falls High School and the surrounding community. We welcome you to read our news and blogs and encourage you to be engaged and informed.

Our mission as ethical journalists is to learn all we can about reporting the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. We hope you find our weekly updates helpful and informative.

We are always looking for feedback, so if you have an suggestions or comments, please let us know by emailing our Staff Supervisor or sending us a message through Facebook!

Thanks and as always, remember to get on the DEVIL LEVEL!

Always remember...to get on the DEVIL LEVEL!

Left to right: Cierra Mcllwain, Camryn Patterson, Ms. Bergmann, Kayla Coleman, and Hunter Litzenberg.
